Valley Gateway Shopping Center Construction Started This Week

Construction started Monday on Carmel Rancho Shopping Center at the mouth of Carmel Valley. The first unit, to be completed by May 1, will include a Safeway supermarket, also a pharmacy and hardware store in addition to a six-pump Union Oil Company service station.

Samuel S. Smith of Hatton Fields Mesa is the owner and developer of the shopping center, situated south of Carmel Valley Road, east of Highway 1.

Dick Moore of Carmel Meadows will operate the drugstore. The general contracting firm of Carmel resident J. B. Fratessa is in charge of construction. The second unit will, according to present plans, be started before the early May opening of the first unit.

Entrance to the shopping center will be off the Valley road through a Carmel stone gateway on to Carmel Rancho Boulevard. This street extends through the development towards the river boundary of the property.

The entire development will be fenced along the Carmel Valley Road frontage. There will be a 15-foot landscaped strip between the roadway and the fencing. The off-street parking facilities, around the shopping areas on the west, south and east, will be screened from view of nearby residents by perimeter planting.

The concrete block buildings faced at corners with Carmel stone, all one-story in height, will have shake or rock-type roofing and pitched roofs. Covered walkways will lead from the parking areas to the shops. Lighting standards will be hooded to prevent sky glare. Other lighting will be placed in shrubbery.

The service station, a separate facility at the right inside the gateway, will have no service facilities visible from the Carmel Valley Road and the only sign in evidence will be a Union 76 identification on the roof. Lighting will

Trustees Consider School Discipline With Citizen Group

Carmel Unified School District trustees set their second meeting in January as the date to approve a student behavior policy for grades 1-8. This decision followed a joint meeting with the Citizens Educational Committee.

Dr. Richard Bell, chairman of the citizens study group, told the board that committee members were not ready last night to discuss discipline. They had not had time to study sufficiently the Carmel Unified School District student behavior policy presented to them by the board, and to consider the present behavior policy at Sunset School where rules are adopted by student representatives working with the faculty, and a student court deals with most infractions.

In a letter sent to Superintendent Stuart Mitchell and distributed to the citizens commitee, Sunset Principal Orville Rogers stated that he preferred the Sunset present policy. Behavior regulations in the district policy only in part apply to elementary schools and, if they are to apply, representatives from these schools should be consulted before issuance of the policy, he pointed out.

Mr. Rogers also said that he

Two Carmel Scouts To Get Eagle Rank At Court Of Honor

Two Carmel boys will receive Scouting's highest rank of Eagle Scout at District Court of Honor ceremonies tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock in Sunset Auditorium. They are Walter Prowell and Glenn Kovacevich.

All troops within the Monterey Peninsula district will participate in the ceremonies to which parents and friends of Scouts have been invited. Scouts and their guests will be welcomed by Mayor Frank Putnam. Opening ceremonies will be conducted by Carmel Troop 32, led by Scoutmaster Glenn Salyers. Troop 86, also of Carmel, will officiate in closing ceremonies, while members of Carmel Valley Troop 140 will serve as ushers.

The three boys who have earned the rank of Eagle will be honored in special ceremonies.

Youngest Eagle will be Glenn Kovacevich, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick A. Kovacevich of Carmel. A student at the Carmel Mission school, Glenn has been working toward his Eagle badge since October 1958 and has earned a total of 24 merit badges. He is a member of Carmel Troop 32, in which he has served as Scribe, Librarian and Den Chief; he is presently assistant senior patrol leader and an instructor in the troop.

Eagle status has also been earned by Walter Prowell, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Prowell of Pebble Beach. Walter, a student at Carmel High School, is a member of Monterey Explorer Post 97. Third Scout to be awarded his Eagle badge will be Richard Love of Seaside.

Members of Troop 32 will be recognized for achievement of various steps in their Scouting activities. Senior patrol leader Edward Neroda, 14, will be awarded his Life badge; with 21 merit badges, he will soon be eligible for Eagle. Tim Hudson, with nine merit badges, has achieved the next highest

CTA To Entertain Foreign Teachers At Carmel School

Fifteen Carmel households will welcome as guests this weekend a group of visiting teachers from 20 foreign countries whose two-day trip here is being sponsored by the World Affairs Council of the Monterey Peninsula.

The 31 teachers are attending San Francisco State College to study techniques of teaching English as a foreign language, under the sponsorship of the State Department and the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

The visitors represent 11 different Central and South American countries, as well as Ceylon, Haiti, Indonesia, Iran, Italy, Japan, Tur-

Members of the California State Park Commission today in helicopters, are surveying the proposed scenic highway route for Cabrillo Highway from Carmel south to the San Luis Obispo County line. Tomorrow the commission will meet in Colton Hall, Monterey.

State Senator Fred Farr stated yesterday he would accompany the commission on their aerial survey of Highway 1. He has proposed the scenic highway designation for the coast road which will be considered by the State Park Commission tomorrow.

The Board of Supervisors on Monday voted to combine the elective offices of county treasurer and tax collector. The resolution provided the two jobs will become one department on January 1, 1963. This action is expected to save the county $5,000 - $10,000 a year.

Continued sunshine for the next few days will mean completion of the Carmel Hill interchange construction job before Thanksgiving.

This week the State Division of Highways installed freeway-type black and white directional signs at the project. Bids for the $225,000 landscaping to cover bare excavation scars at the hillside site will be opened in Sacramento the last day of this month.

Seasonal ban on open burning has been lifted for residents of the Carmel Highlands Fire District, thanks to the recent rains. However, Fire Chief Seizo Kodani notes that permits for all burning must still be obtained at the Highlands fire station. Elsewhere in county areas, permits for open burning will be required by the State Division of Forestry through this month.

School trustees heard Superintendent of Schools Stuart Mitchell attribute lower returns this fall for the Girls' League - P-TA Scholarship Carnival to poor weather. Trustee George Yates had another explanation.

"Last year my son bought three rats and a cat; this year only one dog."

Ralph Meadows, member of the two-man Meadows-Louis political forecasting team and a Carmel resident, reports he has consulted with former world heavyweight champion Joe Louis this week to analyze future status of both Republican and Democratic parties.

Senator John F. Kennedy will be president for the next 16 years, if he runs for re-election, the Meadows-Louis poll predicts.

The Louis-Meadows team accurately predicted the outcome of last week's election. It has also been right about every general election since Wendell Willkie was a presidential candidate. It is based, Mr. Meadows explains, on the fact that any candidate for whom Joe votes is sure to lose.

Joe's remarks this week were No for Kennedy's re-election; Yes, Nixon, Goldwater and Rockefeller, if any of these men should choose to run. He favors Adlai Stevenson above all, but never, never, never would even consider Ex-President Harry S. Truman.

Planners Begin Study Of C-1-L Enlargement And Gas Station Zone

Planning commissioners yesterday afternoon decided to begin immediate study of three of the six proposals on central district zoning referred to them by the city council.

Chairman Herbert Blanks assigned to the land use committee the study of possibly extending C-1-L zone to other appropriate areas of the city, also special consideration of setbacks and frontages of corner lots. He named Commissioners Hugh Smith, J. B. Martin and Florence Josselyn as members of the committee to study establishment of a special zone for gas stations.

The three recommendations left for later commission study are the council's suggestion that conditional uses be reviewed in all four zones of the new ordinance, with the possibility in view of reducing them to as few as possible; the study of amortizing nonconforming uses and structures in the business district, with especial reference to gas stations; and, thirdly, the study of establishment of a sliding scale ratio of number of square feet of site for each unit of a multiple dwelling. At present the ordinance contains the requirement of 1,000 square feet of site for each unit.

The present C-1-L zone, for multiple dwellings, hotels and harmonious types of small shops and services, is confined to two pieces of property on each side of Ocean Avenue below Monte Verde Street. Owners of this land, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stanton and Lloyd Tevis, through their attorneys, have filed protests against the zoning of their property in the new ordinance, which is set for last reading and adoption on December 7.

Yesterday City Attorney John Morse told commissioners there was "legal doubt" in his mind about the present small C-1-L zone. It might be difficult to establish as it gave "different treatment" to the two areas, even though they were at the western end of the business district, pointed towards the beach.

The council, as a committee of the whole, on November 7, recommended that the planning commission study extending C-1-L zone to other similarly developed areas of the business district, particularly on the north and east entrances to the shopping district.

Consideration of corner lots was suggested originally by Councilman John Chitwood. He observed that the new ordinance imposed a hardship on owners of one corner lot who wished to develop their property.

The new ordinance states that a business district building can only extend 80 feet along a frontage, then must be set back 50 feet. Mr. Chitwood observed that the owner of a single corner 40 x 100 foot business lot could not meet this requirement. Any corner lot building with a 100-foot frontage would under the new ordinance have to be only 80 x 40 feet.

The council at the same meeting wished careful consideration by the commission of a special zone for gas stations. They are non-conforming uses in C-1 and C-1-S zones in the ordinance about to be acted upon. Gas stations in the new ordinance are only allowed, with a use permit, in C-2 zone.

Mr. Blanks set the December 21 regular meeting of the commission

Health Department Recommends Sewers In La Loma Terrace

Residents of the La Loma Terrace area will have septic tanks and cesspools replaced with a new sewer system by next spring, if recommendations of the County Board of Health and the Carmel Sanitary District are carried out according to plan.

Arguments for and against installation of a sewer system proposed by the Sanitary District have been bandied about among householders in the area for a number of years. Several months ago, the district was officially petitioned by a group of property owners to install sewers, following complaints about seepage, smell and other problems in the rocky, hilly area.

Progress on the proposed sewer installation was assured following receipt this week by the sanitary board of a letter from Dr. Myron Husband, director of public health for Monterey County.

The letter, read at Tuesday night's meeting of the Sanitary District Board, stated:

"It is our understanding that you propose to install sewers and sewer appurtenances in the area comprising La Loma Terrace at Carmel. Said improvements to be taken under the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913 and the Improvement Bond Act of 1915.

"It is the recommendation of this department that the district proceed with this project as a necessary health measure for the protection of the health and well-being of the residents of that area.

"This letter is to be spread on the minutes of the district and to be incorporated in the resolution authorizing this project."

According to Sanitary District Secretary Chris Neddersen, notice of public hearing on the proposed installation will have first publication next week. Legal proceedings to authorize installation will

4TH STRAIGHT UNDEFEATED SEASON FOR PADRES

Carmel High's varsity football squad, riding the crest with its fourth straight undefeated season, packed too much power for the Pacific Grove Breakers last Friday afternoon at Bardarson Field and scored a 33-0 win over Coach Charley Howell's hard-trying charges. Running its win streak to 33 by scoring one point for every game in the undefeated streak, the senior-dominated Padre squad appeared capable of doubling the score if it had been willing to pour it on. With Frank Bucher throwing strikes to Scott Forbes, Jim Kelley and George Pollock, the Padres moved for huge chunks of yardage against the porous Breaker pass defense.

The Veteran's Day tilt was the Homecoming Game for the Padres and was dressed up by Queen Julie Campbell and her pretty attendants Mary Martin and Niki Budd. Gifted with flowers by the Carmel High gridders, Queen Julie commanded the Red and Gray squad to produce another victory to keep the "Shoe" in the Padre trophy case for another year.

While the Carmel varsity had a comparatively easy time with the big Breakers, the Padre jayvees had to scramble to eke out a 13-12 win over Duke Thayer's scrappy junior-varsity crew. The Breaker Babes enjoyed a 12-6 bulge over Coach Rainer's charges until the final 90 seconds when the Little Padres came to life and drove 55 yards for the winning touchdown.

With the rain making the going pretty sticky, the Carmel varsity was pretty well bottled up for the first quarter and had to wait until early in the second period before driving for its first touchdown. Some fine running by George Pollock, Frank Mayo and Mike Draper gave Carmel the ball on the Breaker two where quarterback Frank Bucher scored on a keeper. Mike Draper sliced off tackle for the conversion point and the Padres were in front 7 to 0. A 25-yard touchdown pass from Bucher to end Scott Forbes got touchdown number two for the Padres and a pass from Bucher to Draper was good for the conversion.

After receiving the second-half kickoff the Padres rolled to a touchdown in eight plays with sophomore end Jim Kelley hauling in a Bucher-thrown pass for the tally. The Padres missed the conversion attempt and had a 20-0 bulge early in the third period. A Bucher-to-Forbes pass put the Padres on the board again in the same quarter and ran the margin to 27-0 as Mike Draper made good on the conversion run. Carmel's final tally came in the fourth period as George Pollock took a pass from Bucher and scampered 12 yards for the six-pointer.

Carmel's proud defensive crew shut off the vaunted Breaker attack for most of the game and kept the Red & Gold gang outside the 30-yard line for the entire game. With Captain John Wilkin leading the charge the hard-hitting Padre defenders gave ground grudgingly and put heavy pressure on quarterback Roger Busico. Manning the Carmel defensive unit were ends Paul Jones and Mike Quarrie; tackles John and Chris Wilkin; guards Greg Hulsey and Frank Preve; linebackers Paul Rice, Dan Moore, Bill Coleman and David Faulkner; halfbacks George Pollock and Lee Oleson; and safetyman Mike Draper.

Fine offensive blocking by Bob Blair, Gary Sciutto, Jim Willcox and Jim Kelley allowed the Padres to move for good gains on the ground and provided quarterback Frank Bucher with plenty of time on his accurate aerials.

Friday's game wound up Carmel High grid careers for 25 Padre performers and leaves only four lettermen returning to bulwark the 1961 Red & Gray grid machine. While the Padres lose most of the 1960 team, Pacific Grove retains 15 lettermen and will field seasoned veterans at every position when the 1961 season rolls around. Top performers for the Breakers in Friday's game were quarterback Roger Busico, halfback Ray Johnson, lineman Doug Lindberg and Rich Davis. All these lads will be back for further grid duties with the Breakers and will be anxiously awaiting the 1961 clash.

Behind, 6 to 0, at the end of the first half, the Carmel junior-varsity bounced back in the third period to get the lock-up touchdown and stay on even terms with the Wavelets until they went ahead, 12 to 6, with three minutes left in the game. With time running out, quarterback Bob Larsen fired a 30-yard pass to end Pete Conway to put the Little Padres on the Wavelet 11-yard line. From here, Larsen dropped a soft aerial into the arms of Ted Leidig for the six-pointer which tied up the fracas. Rick Baldwin powered off the right tackle spot for the conversion point and the Little Padres wound up their season with a 5-3 record.

The clever passing of Bob Larson plus the nifty catches of Pete Conway, Rick Baldwin and Ted Leidig was instrumental in the thrilling win for the Padre jayvees. Up front, the sturdy play of Bob Albee, Terry Tweedie, Dave Har-

Art On The Peninsula

The Lawrence Drake Gallery, San Carlos at Eighth, installed a new one-man show in its main gallery last week. The artist is Carol Summers. Included in this exhibition of large color woodcuts is the print, Gethsemane, which won one of four equal top awards in the American Prints Today show to which 639 artists submitted their best work. Carol Summers, who served four years with the United States Marine Corps in the Pacific, was awarded an Italian Government Grant in 1954, the Louis Comfort Tiffany Fellowship in 1955 and a Guggenheim Fellowship in 1959.

His work is in the collections of more than 20 major museums and universities in the United States, Paris and London. Represented in American Federation of Arts and other travelling shows to Europe, South America and Japan, he has had several one-man shows, but has not been seen here before.

Pulitzer Prize Poet MacLeish To Lecture At College Nov. 29

Archibald MacLeish, poet, lawyer, librarian, diplomat, magazine writer, soldier, will speak in the Monterey Peninsula College lecture series November 29, 8:00 o'clock in the campus Armory. The lecture will be open free to the public.

The only American to win three Pulitzer prizes, MacLeish has been Boylston Professor of Rhetoric and Oratory at Harvard University since 1949.

In his appearance at MPC, MacLeish will read and discuss his own work. Starting with a volume of undergraduate verse, Tower of Ivory in 1917, he has been publishing poetry for 43 years with his latest work, Poetry and Experience, out this month.

Symphony Transfers To Opera House For December 7 Concert

For the second concert of its 1960-61 season, December 7, the Monterey County Symphony will temporarily transfer from Sunset Auditorium to the Wharf Theatre and Opera House in Monterey. The concert, scheduled for a Wednesday, rather than the usual Tuesday night, will be the first appearance of a full symphony orchestra on the stage of the recently renovated Opera House.

Scores of would-be listeners had to be turned away from Sunset Auditorium last month when the 80-piece orchestra made its season debut under new resident conductor, Ronald Ondrejka, before a sold-out house.

A few season tickets, pro-rated for the remaining three concerts, may still be obtained through Symphony Headquarters, Sixth and Dolores Streets. Regular season ticket holders will be assigned Opera House seats corresponding in location to their regular seats in Sunset Auditorium. Thanks to the larger seating capacity of the Opera House, single tickets for the December concert are also available.

Special buses will be provided to take Carmel symphony patrons from here to the Opera House for the concert.

Featured in the second concert will be the young American violin virtuoso, Stanley Plummer, who will be heard with the orchestra in the Beethoven violin concerto. Works by Brahms and Dvorak have also been programmed by conductor Ondrejka.

Ondrejka will present his second concert preview for the Symphony Guild on November 29 at the Church of the Wayfarer.

FIRE CALL TUESDAY HOUSE DAMAGED

One bedroom of the home of Mrs. Millicent Morris at Santa Fe and Mountain View was demolished by fire early Tuesday morning. Twenty-seven members and three trucks of the Carmel Volunteer Fire Department brought the blaze under control shortly after arriving at the scene.

The fire apparently started when a chest was ignited from a radiant-type wall heater close behind it, which had been turned on by a thermostat. The chest and a quantity of other furniture was stored in an unoccupied bedroom of the house, into which Mrs. Morris recently moved. Smoke awakened Mrs. Morris, who turned in the alarm at 5:55 o'clock; she was not injured.

Damage to the house and its contents was estimated at $1,750.

Trustees Consider School Discipline With Citizen Group

thought "some of the controversy on discipline in the elementary grades stems from the fact that the policy was issued as coming from the district as a whole."

He emphasized in his letter, "Our whole approach at Sunset is through student leadership and attempts to develop a little responsibility. It is our goal to stress the positive reward or satisfaction of work well done and the values of self-discipline rather than the negative restraint imposed through fear of punishment for doing wrong."

Tom Brown, member of the Citizens Educational Committee, told the board and committee he is preparing a report on discipline. On his own he has visited classrooms, both this year and last. He has noted thus far this year a marked improvement in discipline. He added, "Certain minor isolated cases of violations I have observed, however, don't lead to the quiet type of classroom I would like to see." He also said that "discipline is a nebulous thing to get my teeth in." He was referring to the fact that discipline is his special assignment with the study group.

Mr. Brown stated that he liked the student behavior policy in effect at Carmel High School and would like to see it extended to the elementary and junior high level.

Dr. Bell suggested that perhaps monthly meetings between trustees and the committee were not necessary unless his group had made progress with a matter under study. He reported that last week's meeting between the study group and teachers and administrators "had established mutual respect and confidence."

Trustee George Yates suggested that, even if the committee had no matters to discuss with the board, the hour set aside for the joint committee-board discussion should be kept. Mr. Yates thought it a good idea for trustees to spend this time considering educational matters.

At last night's meeting trustees also granted maternity leave to Mrs. Frances Taplin, fifth grade teacher at Woods School, for three months, without pay, starting on January 3. They agreed to pay $300 for dental prosthetics to Richard Lawitzke of the High School faculty, if state compensation did not cover the item. Mr. Lawitzke's request came as a result of "being effectively blocked by a student" while coaching a football team. Mrs. Betsy Bennett was authorized to attend the county trustees meeting in Salinas on November 28.

Trustees also heard a favorable report on the frozen foods lunch program from Assistant Superintendent Wayne Greenfield. This is to be carried out on a month-to-month basis, he explained. Food will be brought weekly from lockers rented by the district. At present he is investigating the locker rental picture.

December 14 and December 21 were set as dates for the school board to meet next month.

Trustees also considered a letter that will be sent to all parents in the district explaining school procedures for sending home pupils in the event of an attack alert as recommended by the Regional Civil Defense Coordinator.

Should We Love The Communists? is the title of the sermon for next Sunday at All Saints' Episcopal Church to be delivered by a refugee from Hungary.

Preacher will be the Reverend Enod Brunner, Ph.D., a native of Budapest who fled Communist tyranny in 1950, and came to this country as a priest and teacher. Now headmaster of the Episcopal preparatory school, the York School for Boys in Pacific Grove, Dr. Brunner was first headmaster and prior of the Woodside Priory School in Woodside, California.

CHRISTMAS SEALS MAILED THIS WEEK

Christmas seals were mailed out to over 33,000 county residents this week to inaugurate the annual fund drive of the Monterey County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Valley Gateway Shop. Center Construction Started This Week

conform to the rest of the development.

The Safeway store, aligned architecturally to other buildings, will have one metal sign on the side of the structure facing a gardened interior patio of the shopping center.

Future units will contain radio station KRML, a restaurant, beauty parlor, more shops and Carmel Rancho, Inc. offices. A medical-dental building at the south of the shopping center is included in future plans.

Mr. Smith emphasizes that both the Union Oil Company and the Safeway organization have modified all lighting and signs to be in harmony with the rest of the development.

All units will be constructed around open landscaped patios. Numerous planters will break up frontages. All sections of the development will be connected by covered pathways enclosing the garden areas. Planting will include trees.

The shopping center is immediately adjacent to the site of the new junior high school at the gateway to the Valley.

ACCIDENT REPORTS, AMBULANCE CALLS

California Highway Patrol, Sheriff's office and the ambulance unit at the Carmel Fire Department had a busy week. Their reports noted the following accidents and calls:

Robert Steinmetz, 30, of Mesa Drive, received minor injuries yesterday when the sports car he was driving was struck by a car driven by Lawrence Schueler of Pebble Beach. Steinmetz had stopped for a flagman at the Carmel Hill freeway on Highway One just south of Viejo Road when his car was hit from the rear by that driven by Schueler, who later took Steinmetz to Peninsula Hospital for treatment. Damage to both cars was minor.

On Carmel Valley Road yesterday afternoon, a trailer detached itself from a westbound car driven by Channing Medwedeff of Seaside and collided headon with the eastbound car driven by Mrs. Opel Dutton, 43, of Carmel Valley. Both Mrs. Dutton and her daughter, Mary Ellen, 12, who was riding with her, received minor injuries; neither required hospitalization.

Two emergency calls were answered yesterday by the Carmel Red Cross ambulance. Early Wednesday morning the ambulance went to the home of Mrs. Pauline Murphy at Mountain View and Santa Rita on a medical emergency. Shortly after 1:00 o'clock, the ambulance picked up Miss Alice Clemens, a visitor from San Francisco, who twisted her foot while walking on the rocks at the foot of Santa Lucia and Scenic Drive. Both Mrs. Murphy and Miss Clemens were released following treatment at Peninsula Community Hospital.

Marlin Fluegge, a member of Carmel High's JV football team, suffered a fractured kneecap in the opening play of last Friday's game with Pacific Grove at Bardarson Field. He was taken by the ambulance to Peninsula Hospital and released following treatment late Friday afternoon to go home.

Alvin Duskin of Carmel, a faculty member of Emerson College, received minor injuries Friday evening when his car and a car driven by Mrs. Florence Warren, also of Carmel, collided at the intersection of Highway One and Ocean Avenue. Duskin was taken by the Red Cross ambulance to Peninsula Hospital, where he was released after emergency treatment for cuts and bruises. Mrs. Warren was making a left turn into Ocean Avenue when her car struck Duskin's car, southbound on the highway; she was cited by the Highway Patrol for violation of right-of-way.

Technicality Stops Final Council Vote On New Zoning Law

City councilmen, Monday night, heard the new four-zone business district zoning ordinance read in full by City Clerk Rose. This was the second reading of the ordinance. Last reading and the vote for adoption will take place on December 7 at a regular council meeting.

The adoption vote was scheduled for Monday night's special meeting but councilmen were prevented from taking final action by a technicality. Only urgency ordinances can be passed at special meetings, City Attorney John Morse told the council.

The interim zoning ordinance expires on November 30. The planning commission has ruled on all business district building under this ordinance for the past six years. During the 30 days required by law to transpire between adoption of the new zoning ordinance and its effective date, the planning commission will technically operate under the 1940 zoning ordinance.

Monday night the city attorney stated, however, that planning commissioners would be within their rights if they refused to act on any plans during the hiatus in view of the pending new zoning ordinance.

SANTA LUCIA CHAPEL TO BE ORGANIZED SUN. AT BIG SUR

Sunday afternoon the Reverend David Hill, rector of All Saints' Episcopal Church, will preside at formal organization ceremonies for Santa Lucia Chapel of All Saints' Parish in Big Sur Grange Hall at 4:00 o'clock.

Services have been held in the hall every Sunday since Easter 1959, also for the past year a weekday Church School has been conducted each Wednesday afternoon. The services have been read by the Reverend Peter Farmer, vicar of All Saints' Parish, and Lay Readers of the parish. The latter are Colonel Willard Smith, Mr. George Campbell, Mr. Stephen Grant, Mr. James Neill, Mr. Ilbert Somerville and Mr. Sam Smith Jr.

The organization of Santa Lucia Chapel as a parochial mission of All Saints' Parish is a response to the signed request of six Big Sur residents.

After receiving assurances on Sunday that the Big Sur group will continue to support the Chapel, the Rector will appoint temporary officers of the mission and declare it formally organized. Mr. Paul Hettich is to be appointed warden, Mr. Ransome Cooley, clerk, and Philip Johnson, treasurer.

PARTY HONORING ARTIST

Mrs. Francis (Gene) McComas was honored at a cocktail party last Thursday at the San Francisco head office of the Spreckels Sugar Company. Mr. and Mrs. Charles de Bretteville were hosts for the affair. Mrs McComas, a pioneer member of the Carmel Art Association, recently completed four lunettes commissioned by the Spreckels Company depicting various operations in the production of beet sugar.

Gahagan's Flying Visit

Former Carmel resident William Gahagan, traveling between Santa Barbara and Rome, managed a scant 24 hours in Carmel Saturday to renew acquaintance with old friends and give account of his and his family's current activities.

The Gahagans moved three years ago from Carmel to Rome, where Bill took a year's teaching position at the American Overseas School. Since the fall of 1958 he has served as head of the commissary department of the U. S. Embassy headquarters in Rome.

The Gahagans decided to redeploy the family forces this September, when they flew to New York and then traveled cross-country in a two-car caravan piloted by Bill and son, Mike. The distaff head of the family, Lorna, is now established in a new home at Carpinteria, near Santa Barbara, where daughter Tappy and young son Mark are attending school. The Gahagan's younger daughter, Lissa, is a student at Santa Catalina School for Girls. And this week Mike started basic training with the Army at Fort Ord, at completion of which he will be enrolled at the Army Language School.

Setting up the new family headquarters in Santa Barbara allowed Bill time only for an overnight flying visit to Carmel. Saturday night, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Millard entertained in his honor at the Old Capital Club; their guests included Dr. and Mrs. Remsen Bird, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Barretto, Mr. and Mrs. Hartland Law, Dr. and Mrs. A. Carol McKenney, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Fletcher and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Washburn.

By this time Bill is back in Rome, where he will remain until completion of his Embassy contract next Spring. He then plans to return to Santa Barbara and a possible teaching position at the college there.

Mike Donahoe At JETS Meet

Michael Donahoe of Camino Del Monte and Guadalupe Streets was a recent participant in the first annual western leadership conference of the Junior Technical Engineering Society (JETS), held at the Pomona campus of California Polytechnic College. JETS is a national industry-sponsored organization aimed to stimulate high school and junior college students towards careers in engineering. Mike Donahoe, who attended the meeting as a representative of the California Math Council, teaches mathematics at Walter Colton Junior High School.

Altar Society Meeting

Last week's elections provided a decorative theme for the November 10 meeting of the Altar Society of Carmel Mission Basilica held at the home of Mrs. Frank Born, where patriotic decorations centered on a red, white and blue floral arrangement.

Mrs. Norman Smith reported on her participation in the recent convention in Las Vegas of the Western Division of the National Council of Catholic Women. The business meeting was conducted by Altar Society president, Mrs. S. Hasket Derby. Mrs. Helen Palmtag and Mrs. Margaret Forderhase presided at the tea table. Assisting the hostess, Mrs. Born, was Mrs. Leo Murcell.

Mrs. Thornburg Convalescing

Head librarian Ruth Galvin Thornburg, who has been away from the Harrison Memorial Library since October 20 when she underwent surgery, is now convalescing at her home on Carmel Point. Her weekly column will not appear again in the Pine Cone until she returns to work on December 1.

During Mrs. Thornburg's absence, Mrs. Pauline Heisinger, assistant librarian, is in charge of Carmel's library.

New Realty Board Officers

Robert J. Ross was elected to succeed Charles Lunt as president of the Carmel Board of Realtors at last Friday's luncheon meeting at La Playa Hotel.

Serving with Ross for the coming year will be Charles McEwen, vice-president, Sally Conn, secretary, and Carl Bosholm, treasurer. Elected to two-year terms as directors were Harold Sand and William Farner, and to one-year terms, Nancy Strathmeyer and Charles Lunt.

Words And Music

Poetry and music will be combined at Monday's 2:00 o'clock meeting of the Carmel Woman's Club Book Section. Mrs. Dorothy Fish Kerr, a Humboldt County poet, will read from her own works, while Mrs. Mabel Jeanette Esplen of Pebble Beach will provide piano interludes.

Mrs. Kerr's poems have appeared in numerous anthologies, and a collection of her work has been transcribed in Braille. She is a member of the San Francisco Browning Society, the California Writers' Club and the Century Club.

Teatime following the program will find former board members Mrs. Miles Zimmerman and Mrs. D. L. Staniford in charge of pouring, while hospitality chairman Mrs. Carl Rasmussen will be assisted in serving by Mrs. Eugene Ingalls, Mrs. P. G. Preble, Mrs. Clifton Beckwith, Mrs. Fred Kane, Mrs. Conrad Imelman and Mrs. M. Wasserman. Floral decorations will be the work of Mrs. F. L. Knudsen and Mrs. Aaron Powers.

RLS School Carnival Plans

Students at Robert Louis Stevenson School will join forces with the school's Sponsors Club to present a carnival on December 3. The event, to be held on the school tennis courts from 1:00 to 5:00 o'clock, will be enlivened by games of chance, skits on the hour by student thespians, and booths ranging from a bakery to a boutique for Christmas shoppers, as well as a vegetable stand and a snack bar.

Mrs. Richard D. Collins is chairman for the carnival, assisted by Mrs. L. M. Jeffers, Mrs. Church Chappell, Mrs. Hans von Richter, Mrs. William Schultz, Mrs. Stanley Larson, Mrs. Arthur Dahl, Mrs. O. J. Caselli, Mrs. Jack Dougherty, Mrs. J. G. Costello and Mrs. Peter Rand.

County Cooperative Council Seeks To Adjust Equal City, Farm And Urban-Type Taxes

BY GUNNAR NORBERG

The Monterey County Cooperative Council came into existence a little more than a year ago. It was originally called the County Tax Differential Committee. The present name was chosen early this year when the previously temporary committee was reorganized on a permanent basis. At that time I was elected permanent chairman. Soon afterwards Councilman Lawrence Kurz of Salinas was chosen as co-chairman. Each of the participating cities in Monterey County has designated one of its councilman and one of its administrative officers as official representatives on the Monterey County Cooperative Council. Representing Carmel in the administrative category is City Clerk Larry Rose. Central figure in the administrative group, which meets prior to the monthly meeting of the entire council to prepare that meeting's agenda, is Salinas City Manager Tom Dunne, who is designated staff director. Holding the position of secretary is Monterey Assistant City Manager James F. Sullivan.

The reason for the cooperative council organization is that cities in general are suffering in various ways because of the great growth of urban-type unincorporated areas either just beyond their city limits or in other county areas. In Monterey County there are such areas outside all the cities, but the largest of them are in the vicinities of Carmel and Salinas. Because the county tax rate, now $1.78 per $100 of assessed valuation, applies equally to all taxpayers both in cities, outside of cities, and on farms, a serious inequity inevitably exists, until and unless compensating adjustments of various kinds are attempted and achieved.

County government is essentially intended to be government for rural areas, but the rapid growth of densely populated areas which neither annex to nearby cities nor themselves become separate cities, has in many places caused counties to give certain city-type services to these unincorporated areas. There has simply been no other available government to provide at least minimum needed services, such as fire and police protection and street work. These, however, are precisely the kind of services which cities provide for themselves out of entirely separate city taxes. In Carmel's case, this city tax is now $1.17.

It is hard to be precise without exact data as a basis, but it can generally be said that taxpayers in the cities and the farm areas in Monterey County contribute substantially to the cost of sheriff's patrols, fire protection, and street work in unincorporated areas. For example, a 1951 League of California Cities survey said of the urbanized area just outside of Salinas, "If the Alisal district were required to pay the cost of the patrol service now provided by the Monterey County Sheriff, a tax rate of 47c there would be necessary. . . ."

In this documented Alisal instance, only the single service of police protection was identified, in terms of its likely cost, if the taxpayers in the area served had actually had to pay for it separately.

Since the most densely populated unincorporated areas are in the vicinities of Carmel and Salinas, and not evenly distributed in the areas around all of the Monterey County cities, it could be said that cities remote from both Carmel and Salinas, such as King City and Seaside, participate distantly but importantly in the indirect subsidy which the heavily populated unincorporated areas inequitably enjoy.

The original approach to what seemed a possible over-all solution to many knotty inequities was what I introduced as a tax differential scheme. For example, I envisaged a three-way county tax rate which would charge city taxpayers, let's say, $1.28; farm taxpayers, $1.68; and taxpayers in densely populated unincorporated areas, $2.38. With such differential taxation, city taxpayers would pay substantially less than the $1.78 they now pay, farmers would pay a little less than they now do, and urban-type taxpayers outside cities would then pay something like the proper cost of services almost necessarily given to them.

An official of the League of California Cities spoke last year to the then Tax Differential Committee, and said such a three-way county tax rate probably could not be imposed under existing law. He added, however, that permissive legislation to allow Boards of Supervisors to assess such a tax if they chose, probably would encounter little opposition in the state legislature if it were to be introduced. Meanwhile there are other avenues which can be pursued on the way to the establishment of equity in the various matters already discussed.

It was essentially with the

Why be tied to the sun and an old-fashioned clothesline? A modern dryer lets you dry a week's laundry in minutes—day or night, any weather! No laundry lugging—you just push a button and clothes come out fluffy, soft. Wrinkle-remover cycle on new dryers means only "touch-up" ironing for some things, no ironing for others! County Co-op. Council Seeks To Equalize City, Farm And Urban Taxes thought specifically of exploring these other avenues, with hoped-for amicable interest and participation by the Board of Supervisors, that the tentatively established tax differential committee changed its name, with general approval, to the name by which it is now known—Monterey County Cooperative Council.

During the past several months, Co-Chairman Lawrence Kurz and Staff Director Tom Dunne have been engaged in earnest negotiation with the County Board of Supervisors upon the subject of enlisting that board's interested and active participation in the work of the Monterey County Cooperative Council.

That these ably conducted negotiations by Co-Chairman Kurz and Staff Director Dunne were beginning to achieve their desired result, was conveyed in word to them from the Board of Supervisors that its chairman, Tom Hudson, would be present at this month's meeting of the Cooperative Council in Salinas, November 4. They were later advised that unexpected developments made it impossible for Supervisor Hudson to be present at this month's meeting, but that he would make it a point to come to the succeeding month's meeting, which is now tentatively scheduled for Friday evening, December 9, in the committee room of the new Salinas library.

A statement of objectives of the Council, dated last April 14, suggests:

1. Jointly develop a master plan of streets and highways in the entire county, including the areas within the incorporated limits of all the cities in the county.

"2. Coordination in the adoption and enforcement of building codes, zoning laws and subdivision standards and controls.

"3. Joint refuse disposal site operation.

"4. County-wide coordination of all civil defense activities.

"5. Study of disparity in court costs paid by cities to the county.

"6. Joint use, purchase or development of recreational facilities.

"7. Study of standards of service by county road department, sheriff's office, and county welfare department in both incorporated and unincorporated areas."

Meanwhile the Monterey County Cooperative Council sought from the city councils of the participating cities, and has received from them, their views about asking Interim Committees on Local Government of the State Legislature to explore the possibility of granting cities various possible jurisdictional rights on their peripheries. The cities generally favored such exploratory action by the legislative committees mentioned, but the Cooperative Council has so far not acted definitively in this matter.

Meanwhile the Cooperative Council hopes that taxpayers in all the cities in the county will further interest themselves in its work.

All Carmel Children Have Free Invitation To Emperor's Clothes

Carmel school children will be treated to a free performance of The Emperor's New Clothes Tuesday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock at Sunset Auditorium. The play is the tenth annual Children's Theatre presentation by the Monterey Peninsula League, Inc.

Charles Thomas, veteran director and actor at the Golden Bough, Forest Theater and at the First Theatre, where he is currently in charge of productions, is producer-director of this year's Children's Theatre show. Heading the cast of The Emperor's New Clothes will be Peg Miner and Gertrude Chappell as the Emperor and Empress, and Babs Richardson as The Old Woman.

League members to be featured in the cast are Mrs. Henry Newman, Mrs. Patrick Dormody, Mrs. Robert G. Chapman, Mrs. Milton Thompson, Mrs. John Clancy, Mrs. David Thorngate, Mrs. Richard J. Dormody, Mrs. Walter Newman, Mrs. Roderick Dewar, Mrs. Roberta Stanley, Mrs. Louis Rudolph, Mrs. Jean O. McDonald and Miss Theresa Krueger.

The show is costumed by Mrs. Richard Dormody and Mrs. Charles Page, with Mrs. Milton Thompson in charge of sets and properties. Mrs. John Clancy heads the Children's Theatre committee for the League.

Congressman Teague Thanks Supporters For Re-Election

Congressman Charles M. Teague has issued the following statement after his successful re-election to the House of Representatives for a fourth term from the 13th Congressional District:

"I naturally am very pleased with the outcome of the election. It now appears that my majority will be between 60,000 and 65,000 votes after the absentee ballots are opened.

"I also want to take this opportunity to thank every individual who assisted me in the campaign, irrespective of their party affiliation.

"During my fourth term I shall continue to serve all the people, Democrats, Republicans and Independents, and conduct our District affairs in Washington with the same devotion and attentiveness to duty that I have in the past.

"There are other very encouraging aspects of this election result. I think it has proved the people of this District want legislative leadership which is conservative on economic affairs and sympathetic on human affairs. I'm proud also to have received such strong support on the issue of the House Committee on Un-American Activities."

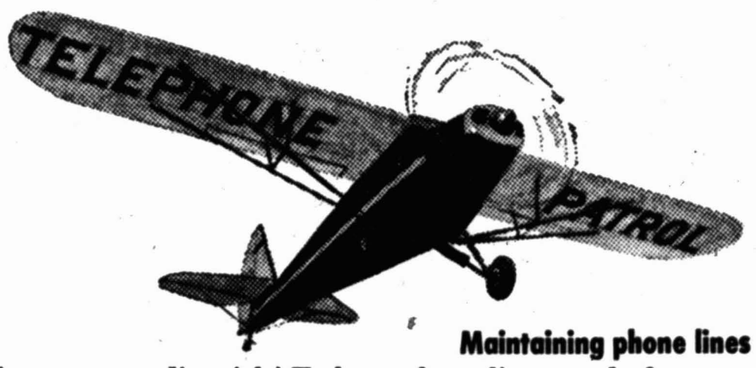
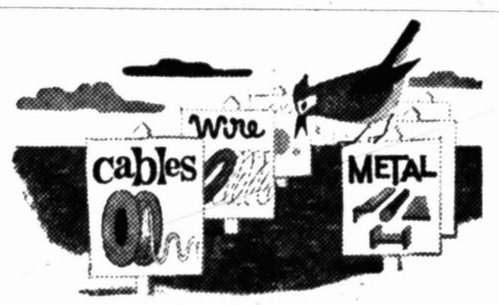
WHAT'S DOING
D. D. Muir, your Telephone Manager in Carmel



Maintaining phone lines is a never ending job! To keep phone lines ready for your calls, men in Telephone Patrol planes fly along hundreds of miles of phone cable nearly every day. They're on the lookout for construction work or other hazards that might damage underground or overhead lines. They warn anyone on the ground working near cables by dropping notes or calling to them over the plane's loudspeaker system.

Other cable patrols on foot, in trucks and snow vehicles travel along phone lines to spot hazards before they cause trouble. It seems like a lot of work, but this is the surest way to keep your telephone service ready for you, whenever you need it.



Cultivating a "telephone farm" is the unusual project of some Bell Telephone Laboratories engineers. It's an experiment with new materials for underground telephone equipment — the "plants" they've buried are pieces of wire, cable, and metals. These will be dug up periodically to see which ones are in the best condition.

The "telephone farm" will help our engineers find the best materials for a faster and less expensive way to put telephone equipment underground. And it will mean another new saving to help your telephone dollar go further.

Don Schneider, from Fresno, was appointed Assistant Manager in the Monterey Business Office in October replacing Fred Quadros who went to Salinas. Don came to Monterey from Fresno where he has been with the Telephone Company for four years, working in the Sales Organization and then in the Business office. We know Don with his wife and daughter will find the Monterey Peninsula a wonderful place to work and play.

Castagnas' Pre-Holiday Party

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Castagna brightened the post-election, pre-holiday lull for some 100 of their friends with the cocktail party presented Saturday evening at their home on Ridgewood Road.

Down from Berkeley to assist her parents in entertaining the guests was Susan Castagna, who graduated from Cal in June and is currently working toward her teaching credential at the U. C. graduate school. Several of Susan's friends from Berkeley and former Carmel High schoolmates were also present for Saturday's party.

Autumn colors were used by Mrs. Castagna as keynote for the party's decorative scheme, centering on a buffet table with a gold cloth and a handsome arrangement of fall flowers.

Carmelites Win Awards

Three Carmelites have received cash awards from the Navy for superior performance records as employees at the U. S. Naval Postgraduate School.

Miss Mary V. Illich received a top award of $150, while Miss Nancy H. Frank and Miss Elizabeth Kirby each received $100. Another $100 bonus went to Mrs. Mary E. Hitchcock of Carmel Valley.

The awards, earned by less than two percent of the Navy's employees, were made in recognition of sustained superior performance ratings covering a period of one year.

Renew Ballet Friendships In City

Joanne and Dudley Nix dedicated last weekend to renewing friendships in, and enjoying the performance of, the Royal Ballet in San Francisco. The Nixes, who met members of the then Sadler's Wells Ballet during their last visit in London, spent Saturday and Sunday nights at the hotel housing the company, and sharing in talk of ballet with such luminaries as Margot Fonteyn, Brian Shaw and Michael Soames. Unofficial host to the Nixes was John Hart of London, principal staff member with the company.

Sunday afternoon the Nixes saw the Royal Ballet production of Giselle, featuring Fonteyn, which Joanne found particularly interesting by comparison to the Giselle which she saw presented last season by Russia's famed Bolshoi company. Mrs. Nix also managed a visit to the city earlier this month to see the Royal Ballet's production of Swan Lake.

John Sampson Back, In Uniform

After a time away from home at college and in business, John T. (Toby) Sampson is back on the Peninsula — but now it's Private Sampson, undergoing basic infantry training at Fort Ord.

The son of Mrs. Blanche R. Sampson of Carmel, John graduated with the class of '55 from Carmel High and attended Cal Poly at San Luis Obispo. Before entering the service, he was employed by the Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Company in Los Angeles.

While he completes the six-month training course at Fort Ord, Pvt. Sampson's wife, the former Terry Otterson of Pebble Beach, is staying here in Carmel with her mother, Mrs. Artie Otterson.

Presbyterian Church Will Dedicate Organ At Service, Recital

Sunday morning The Carmel Presbyterian Church will formally dedicate a memorial organ in the name of Edgar C. B. Kirsopp. It has been given to the church by Mrs. Kirsopp in memory of her husband, a ruling elder of the church, who died in Carmel on May 27, 1960. In addition, the congregation will observe its annual Dedication Sunday, looking ahead to the work of the parish for the coming year.

A public recital will be given Monday evening at 8:00 o'clock at the church. Richard Purvis, organist and master of the choristers of Grace Cathedral in San Francisco, will be the guest organist. Mr. Purvis is a graduate of the Curtis Institute of Music and has studied in Europe. He has appeared with the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra. A composer of organ musie, he has also written numerous anthems and piano works.

Mr. Kirsopp, in whose memory the organ is being dedicated, was born in Linlithgow, Scotland, on August 20, 1892. He graduated, with first honors in law, from the University of Edinburgh, also served for five years with the British Forces during World War I, as a staff officer the last three years, and was awarded the Military Cross and Bar for Distinguished Service. He came to the United States in September, 1919. His business career was spent in chemistry and allied industries. He was a director of Rohm and Haas Company in Philadelphia, serving as its vice-president, and vice-chairman of the board. After his retirement from active business in 1948, he continued in the latter capacity until a few months prior to his death.

Mr. Kirsopp served as an elder in the Presbyterian Church of Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania, in the same capacity at the Carmel Presbyterian Church after he and Mrs. Kirsopp moved here in 1958. He also was a director of the Peninsula Community Hospital and the Monterey Peninsula Visiting Nurse Association.

British television star Jacqueline Mackenzie will be on stage in Monterey at the old Wharf Theatre and Opera House one night only, November 25. She is England's most celebrated new comic, hailed by the London Evening News as the "clown princess of television." Miss Mackenzie has been seen by American viewers as special guest on the Ed Sullivan show, when she presented parts of her program, Headline Hilarity.

T. W. Sigourney III

Thaddeus Wellington Sigourney III, a Carmel resident for the past eleven years, died Monday afternoon following a sudden heart attack.

Mr. Sigourney was stricken at his home on San Antonio Street near Eleventh Avenue early Monday afternoon. The Carmel Red Cross ambulance was summoned, but despite efforts of the fire department's ambulance crew to revive him with oxygen, Mr. Sigourney was pronounced dead on arrival at Peninsula Community Hospital.

Mr. Sigourney and his wife, Hazel F. Sigourney, made Carmel their permanent home in 1949, following his retirement as personnel manager of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco with which he had been associated for 30 years. For a number of years prior to his retirement, Mr. and Mrs. Sigourney had maintained a summer home here.

A native of Nevada City, where he was born February 26, 1889, Mr. Sigourney was raised and educated in Oakland. He began his banking career with the International Banking Corporation of San Francisco.

In addition to his wife, Mr. Sigourney leaves two daughters, Mrs. Marjorie S. Bray of Carmel and Mrs. Elizabeth J. Fitzgerald of Oakland; a son, John C. Sigourney of Carmel Valley; and five grandchildren, Michael and Beverly Bray of Carmel, Thaddeus W. Sigourney IV and Edward Sigourney of Carmel Valley, and Laurie Fitzgerald of Oakland.

Private funeral services were held at the family home yesterday afternoon with Dr. K. Fillmore Gray of the Church of the Wayfarer officiating. Friends wishing to honor the memory of Mr. Sigourney are asked to do so in the form of contributions to charities of their choice.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

Man's real, satisfying identity will be emphasized at Christian Science churches Sunday in the Lesson - Sermon on "Soul and Body."

Scriptural selections will include this verse: "I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvelous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well" (Psalms 139:14).

To be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (302:3-8): "The material body and mind are temporal, but the real man is spiritual and eternal. The identity of the real man is not lost, but found through this explanation; for the conscious infinitude of existence and of all identity is thereby discerned and remains unchanged."

A special Thanksgiving service is announced by First Church of Christ, Scientist, Carmel for 11:00 a.m. on Thanksgiving Day.

Open to the general public, the service will be held in the church edifice at Monte Verde between 5th and 6th Avenues. No collections of any kind are to be taken at this service.

Expressions of praise and gratitude to God will be read from the Bible and also from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy in a Lesson-Sermon for the day entitled "Thanksgiving."

The Golden Text is from Revelation (7:12): "Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever."

The latter portion of the service will be devoted to voluntary expressions of gratitude by members of the congregation for God's goodness shown in spiritual growth, healings, and other blessings.

The Short, Happy Reign of Julie

The short and splendid, if rainy, reign of Queen Julie the First ended triumphantly with a 33-0 score for Carmel High's varsity football squad over arch-rivals Pacific Grove last Friday afternoon at Bardarson Field.

Following a secret ballot by members of the football team, Julie Campbell was named Homecoming Queen at the dance at the high school the night before the big game. Announcement of her assumption of royalty was made by student body vice-president Bill Coleman, after which Julie was crowned and presented with a dozen red roses by team captains John Wilkin and Frank Mayo.

Named as Julie's attendants were Niki Budd and Mary Martin, who were escorted by co-captains Wilkin and Mayo to join Julie and Bill in leading off the "snowball" dance.

Julie is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. Gordon Campbell and a senior in High School, where she serves as head songleader. However, she was spelled at her duties at Friday's game by alternate songleader Gay Antoncich, in order to properly fulfill her role of queen.

Preceding the game, Julie and her attendants were paraded around the field in an open convertible, then escorted past the stands by Coach George Mosolf and the team captains. Proving her regal mettle, Julie then took her place on a throne in the stands and observed the game as undisturbed by the rain as were the fresh bouquet of roses presented to her by Coach Mosolf.

Mays' Daughter Visits

Carmel is proving a relaxing change of atmosphere from currently turbulent Guatemala for Mrs. Barbara Mays Johnson, here with her four children for an extended visit with her parents Colonel and Mrs. Thomas L. May, and brother, Tom May Jr.

Barbara's husband, Charles Green Johnson, is a production engineer with a British-American tobacco firm in Guatemala City, where the family has lived for several years. Barbara visited here a year ago with their daughters Cindy, now 9, and Kathy 6; but the current visit is the first return to their birthplace for twins Grant and Lisa, aged three. Cindy and Kathy attend a bi-lingual school in Guatemala City, but have elected to study at Woods School during their holiday here.

All five Johnsons are staying at the May home on Stewart Place, and will be joined there shortly by the head of the family when he flies up from Guatemala for a three months' leave.

Back From Colorado Springs

Tom Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Manchester have returned from Colorado Springs where they attended the annual convention of the State Life Insurance Company of Indianapolis.

The invitational meeting was held at the Broadmoor Hotel. Mr. Brown and Mr. Manchester are members of Tom Brown Insurance Associates of Carmel. Mr. Manchester was one of the featured speakers at the convention.

The three Carmelites also visited the Air Force Academy and went to the top of Pike's Peak.

From Mort Sahl To Ondine

Gus and Frances Arriola took advantage of last Friday's holiday to enjoy a three-day weekend in San Francisco and recover from the election. Their house on Casanova Street was used as a polling place, and the Arriolas spent much of Tuesday night tabulating votes.

The Arriolas and their son, Carlin, a Carmel High freshman, delighted in the Saturday night performance at the Opera House of Ondine by the Royal Ballet. They spent the preceding evening being equally entertained by comedian Mort Sahl's "homecoming" appearance in Berkeley.

Gus's last respite from the drawing board and his comic strip, Gordo, was a recent busman's holiday in Palo Alto, where he served as one of a panel of judges for a national commercial arts award competition.

Russian Expert For Kiwanis

Leonard Fletcher, who worked for a number of years in Russia as an engineer with an American firm, discussed his impressions and experiences of the Soviet Union at today's luncheon meeting of Carmel Kiwanis at Cypress West Hotel. Mr. Fletcher, now a Carmel resident, was introduced by Kiwanis president Commander John Chitwood (USN Ret.).

Christmas Bazaar Today

Bargain-hunters have until 4:00 o'clock this afternoon to do early Christmas shopping at All Saints' annual Christmas Bazaar. Held in the church parish hall, the bazaar includes such items as toys, jewelry, candles, aprons and other handmade gifts, as well as plants, Christmas cards and decorations, antiques and candy. A snack bar is also open for the refreshment of shoppers.

Members of the wedding party pose happily with Dr. and Mrs. Richard J. Creedon in their Pebble Beach home following the marriage last Thursday evening of the former Colleen Wood of Carmel and the Peninsula surgeon. At Dr. Creedon's right are his new stepdaughters, Poppy, 10, and Ann, 14; left his stepson, Barton, 12, nearly obscured by the Great Dane, Thurber, a well-loved member of the family who was also admitted to the ceremony.

Parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Creedon of Plainfield, New Jersey, and a few close friends of Colleen and Dr. Creedon were also present for the wedding, which was performed by Judge Richard Eldred. Several hundred attended the large reception held Saturday evening at the Tennis Ranch in Carmel Valley. Dr. and Mrs. Creedon are now honeymooning in Palm Springs, and will take up residence in their new home on the 17 Mile Drive next week.

Birgit And Dagmar To Sweden

The Carlson sisters, Birgit and Dagmar, will close the doors of their restaurant next week for a seven-week vacation which will take them back to their homeland, Sweden, for the holidays.

The sisters will leave Los Angeles by jet on November 26 for a flight over the North Pole to Copenhagen, where they plan to stop only long enough to lunch with friends before setting off on pre-Christmas visits in London, Paris, Rome, Zurich and Hamburg. They will return to Scandinavia in time to enjoy Christmas and New Year's in their home town of Halnstad in Southern Sweden.

It will be the first visit back home in five years for Birgit and Dagmar, whose excitement over the pleasures of the trip does not eliminate business considerations: they'll be on the lookout for new Swedish cookbooks and recipes to bring back with them on January 6.

Architects Elect Officers

Carmel architect and planning commissioner Fred Keeble was elected president of the Monterey Bay Chapter, American Institute of Architects, at a meeting Tuesday night at the Mark Thomas Inn.

Other new officers are Jerome Kasavan of Salinas, vice-president, Edward Duerr of Monterey, secretary, and William Ricker of Carmel Valley, treasurer. Elected to the chapter's board of directors were John Taras of Pacific Grove, one year, and Will Shaw of Carmel, two years. Outgoing president William Cranston of Carmel will serve as the chapter's director-at-large.

Eleanor Crouch To Chicago

Miss Eleanor Crouch, curriculum coordinator for the Carmel schools, leaves Sunday for a week in Chicago, where she will attend a workshop on English language curriculum as well as the golden anniversary convention of the National Council of Teachers of English. During the convention, scheduled for November 24 to 26 at the Morrison Hotel, Miss Crouch will be a featured participant in a panel discussion on Trends in the Teaching of Elementary Language Arts.

The trip won't be all business, says Miss Crouch; the large delegation from California which will be flying back for the conference plans some extra-curricular dinners and diversions. And in addition, Miss Crouch will spend some time visiting a Chicago cousin of hers, a research scientist, and his family. She'll fly home to Carmel next Saturday.

Returns From World Trip

Carmel looks fine but feels a bit chilly to geologist Charles Shaw of the Highlands, who returned Wednesday from an extended tour of balmier areas of the globe.

Early last Spring Mr. Shaw left for the first phase of his travels, which involved sailing to London, flying to Paris, there picking up a new car and then driving through France, Switzerland, Germany, Austria and Denmark en route to Sweden, where he participated in an international geological congress in Stockholm. A return trip across Europe to Italy was accompanied by numerous geological side trips. From Italy, Mr. Shaw departed on a ten-day tour of the Greek islands.

The car, an accumulation of geological specimens and assorted purchases were finally left at Marseilles for shipment home, while Mr. Shaw himself boarded a freighter for a long cruise back to the United States via the Suez Canal, Bombay, Ceylon, Japan and the Hawaiian Islands.

Wieslanders' Homecoming

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie R. Wieslander had a special sort of homecoming on their return last weekend from a six-week trip to the Orient.

Saturday morning, against a stormily dramatic background of wind-tossed waves and scudding clouds, the Wieslanders were ceremoniously presented with a velvet case containing the keys to their just-completed "dream house" overlooking Midway Point by architect Walter Burde.

The Wieslanders plan to move here permanently around the first of next month. Former Piedmont residents, they have maintained an apartment in Carmel during construction of their new home. A primary object of their recent trip to Hong Kong, Japan and the Hawaiian Islands was to select Oriental furnishings, fabrics and screens for the house.

Tweedies Have A Son

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Tweedie Jr. (Sue Parker) became the parents of a six pound, eight ounce son November 9 at Peninsula Hospital. It's the first child for the Tweedies, both musicians and former players with the Monterey County Symphony; they've named their son Derek Evan. Mr. and Mrs. Al Parker of Carmel Valley and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Tweedie Sr. of Seaside are small Derek's grandparents.

ris and Bob Wells served to give Carmel game control.

Steve Williams, Joe Bommarito, Bob Roberts, Bill O'Neill, Joe Bennett and John McQuay were the big cogs in the Wavelet attack. The Breaker Babes won three and lost three in league play this season and enjoyed a 5-3 record in all games played.

MPC - HARTNELL CLASH FOR JC TITLE SATURDAY NIGHT

Coach George Porter sends his MPC Lobos into action against the Hartnell Panthers this Saturday night at the Salinas High Stadium in a game which is sure to decide the Coast Junior College championship. The Lobos go into this one with a clean slate in league play while Coach Arvin Smith's Panthers have won them all except a tie game with the Foothill Owls. This Saturday's 8:00 o'clock fracas should be the best JC attraction in Northern California this season and the winner should receive one of the numerous bowl bids which are handed out at this time of the year.

Off the season records of the two teams, it appears an even-up game with the Lobos having more fire-power on offense and Hartnell enjoying a slight bulge in the defensive department. In Leroy Guiterrez, Dennis Jackson and Loyce Singleton, the Lobos have breakaway threats at any time while the Panthers hope to counter with the sensational running of Henry Kalama and the passing of quarterback Maguire. The last time the Lobos and Panthers squared off for the title, Hartnell humiliated MPC by a whopping 54-0.

Bernard Szold

Bernard Szold died Tuesday night in Victoria, Texas, where he was founding director of the Victoria Community Theatre. He was 60 years old.

Mr. Szold and his wife, Elizabeth, had spent the past six summers here at the home of her mother, Mrs. Gilbert Woolworth, and had planned to retire to Carmel. Mr. Szold first came here in 1940 as director of a visiting professional company, and in 1958 directed the production of Robinson Jeffers' Medea at the Forest Theater.

A native of Peoria, Illinois, Mr. Szold was engaged in the theatre during most of his life, and also headed the talent department at Columbia Studios for several years. During World War II he directed the U. S. Army Special Services Department in London.

Among surviving family members is a daughter, Miss Stephanie Szold, of Carmel.

Funeral services will be held in the Episcopal Church of Victoria.

Esther Gilchrist

Funeral services were held on the Peninsula yesterday afternoon for Mrs. Esther Rhodes Gilchrist, former Carmel resident who died Sunday in a Santa Cruz hospital at the age of 77.

Mrs. Gilchrist was born February 14, 1883, in Woodland. She and her husband, Frederic V. Gilchrist, made their home in Carmel until 1951, when they moved to Ben Lomond in the Santa Cruz mountains.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by a sister, Mrs. William Seifert of San Francisco.

Dr. K. Fillmore Gray of the Church of the Wayfarer officiated at funeral services yesterday at the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea Crematorium.

ROYAL BALLET FILM SHOWING AT STEINBECK

Carmelites who have been unable to get to San Francisco to see the Royal Ballet on stage this month may see the famed descendant of London's Sadler's Wells on film this week at the Steinbeck Theatre on Cannery Row.

Considered the finest ballet film of its kind, Royal Ballet was made at Covent Gardens by the same group which produced an earlier dance film classic on the Bolshoi Ballet.

Featuring prima ballerina Margot Fonteyn and filmed in color, Royal Ballet includes The Firebird, Act II of Swan Lake, and the company's newest production, Ondine.

SALVATION ARMY PREPARES ANNUAL CHRISTMAS APPEAL

Under the chairmanship of William R. Giles, members of the local Salvation Army Service Unit are preparing the organization's annual appeal for funds to support its rehabilitation centers for alcoholics. Christmas appeal letters will be mailed the day after Thanksgiving.

Other officers of the local unit are Norman C. Winslow, treasurer, Mrs. Mary L. Clayton, welfare secretary and Clara Winslow, recording secretary. They will be assisted by members Clyde Klaumann, Robert E. Smith, Mrs. Earl Dewar, Miss Katherine F. Branson, Allen Knight, William J. Rissell, Mrs. Alice Askew, Colonel William M. Chapman and Eugene W. Nissen.

as the date on which the committees would give a full report of the studies assigned yesterday.

Building plans studied yesterday afternoon by the commission were for the second Standard Oil Company gas station at Junipero and Fourth, remodeling of the Purity store, and Pine Terrace co-operative apartment development at Mission and Third.

Original plans for the gas station have been altered at the suggestion of the commission. More landscaping, including pine trees, has been provided. The heavy roof fascia will be replaced with exposed rafters. The commission has been asked to submit suggestions for types of shrubs to be used in the landscaping.

Mr. Blanks advised the Standard Oil representative present yesterday that it would be wise for the company to file for a use permit for the proposed C-2 zone site. Under the new zoning ordinance this will be mandatory.

Purity store remodeling plans and landscaping of the enlarged site delighted the commission. The present roof will be replaced by a pitched shake roof. Only two small signs, one each beside two entrances, will be displayed. Parking for 38 cars will be provided in two areas, one the present parking lot, reduced to 24 spaces; the other, for 14 cars, is the site of the former Borden's dairy which will be demolished. Landscaping will be provided at the entrances to the lots which will be fenced. The area between the fencing and the street frontage will also be landscaped. Pine trees will be planted in some of the gardened spaces. A covered colonnade will extend along the south of the enlarged building and entrances will be under a covered portico. The property will extend from Mission Street through to Junipero.

key, and the Republic of China.

The group will arrive tomorrow morning at the Army Language School where they will spend the day observing ALS laboratories and classes. Saturday morning they will be taken on a tour of the Peninsula, followed by a no-host luncheon at Fisherman's Wharf.

Saturday afternoon the Carmel Teachers Association will be host to the visitors, who will be shown around the campus and classrooms of Carmel High and then entertained in the homes of various local English and language teachers for dinner. Carmel teachers participating in this phase of the program are Mrs. Mariquita Brey, Frederick Rainer, Raymond Gere, Mrs. Romayne Hill, Lloyd Baskerville, Peter Lyon, Robert Wilson, Miss Diane Evans, Donald Craig, Henri Paroutaud, Dick Lawitzke, all from the High School, Mrs. Sarah Harkins from River School, and High School Principal Warren Edwards.

The visitors will spend Friday and Saturday nights in the homes of members of the World Affairs Council. Hosting members of the group will be the following Carmelites: Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McHarry, General and Mrs. F. O. Bowman, Dr. and Mrs. Howard Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Carter, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Sweeney, Mrs. Florence Warren, Mrs. G. G. Smith, Mrs. C. A. Trumbly, Mrs. M. C. Stebbins, Mrs. Frank Carmody, Mrs. Walter Schuster, Mrs. Walter Lehmann and Mrs. P. Davis. Mrs. McHarry and Mrs. Lehmann are co-chairmen of the foreign visitors committee for the World Affairs group.

Trustees Delay Any Action On Tularcitos Bus

Carmel Unified School District buses transport an average of 766 students each day in nine vehicles, ranging from a sedan to a 91-passenger coach, according to a report received by the board of trustees last night. The report was prepared at the request of Trustee George Yates at a previous meeting. He thought the board should have comprehensive knowledge of the system's transportation picture before considering purchase of a new bus next year.

During the 1959-60 school year, the cost of keeping the nine vehicles repaired was $6,131.34. One of the coaches, with a 67-passenger capacity, is in poor mechanical condition and should be replaced immediately, the board was advised at the previous meeting. Estimated cost of repairing the bus is $1,500-$2,000. It carries a total of 116 pupils to Tularcitos School in Carmel Valley each school day. During the 1959-60 school year, repairs for this bus amounted to $2,114.57; the year before, $1,234.74.

Total cost of repairs to all buses during 1958-59 was $5,352.44; during 1959-60, $6,131.34.

Mr. Yates asked for these figures so that they might be ready when next year's budget is considered.

Any decision on bus replacement was again delayed last night at the suggestion of Mr. Yates. He requested a wait until information is compiled pertaining to pupil transportation needs at the new junior high school.

Tularcitos bus is broken down and in the shop for repairs, Assistant Superintendent Wayne Greenfield told trustees.

SAID RIZA INJURED IN MONTEREY ACCIDENT

Said Riza, Carmel resident and chairman of the Turkish department at the Army Language School, was reported resting comfortably today at Monterey Hospital following major injuries he received Tuesday morning when struck by a car in Monterey.

Riza was thrown some 60 feet from the crosswalk at the intersection of Franklin and High Streets where he was walking when hit by a car driven by Mrs. Angela Hucheson of Monterey. She was blinded by the sun and had seen no one crossing the street, Mrs. Hucheson told police, who are still investigating the accident.

Riza will require hospitalization for several more days. He and his wife, June, live at Lazarro Drive and Mesa Place.
